Dr. Donald Ian Macdonald
Deputy Assistant to the President for Drug Abuse Policy
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Dr. Macdonald:

Please be advised that the Central Intelligence Agency has a fair and compassionate treatment policy for HIV-infected employees and an information, education and personnel management policy which is in full compliance with the Office of Personnel Management's (OPM) and the Center for Disease Control's (CDC) Guidelines for AIDS.

The Central Intelligence Agency requests an exemption from further reporting requirements relative to our policy and program on AIDS information, education and personnel management, due to the covert status of many of our employees and the sensitive nature of their occupations.

Sincerely,

R. M. Huffstutler
Deputy Director for Administration
